

Call for 2026 Art and Article Submissions

The Certain Days: Freedom for Political Prisoners Calendar collective will be releasing our 2026 calendar in September 2025.

We are doing an open call for abolition-related art and article submissions to feature in the calendar, which hangs in more than 6,000 homes, workplaces, prison cells, and community spaces around the world. We encourage contributors to submit both new and existing work.

We especially seek submissions from people in prison or jail, so please forward this call to any prison-based artists and writers.

Submission Deadline: Friday, May 31, 2025

Format Guidelines

ARTICLES	ART
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Due to space limitations, submissions may be lightly edited for clarity and concision, with no change to the original intent.• 400-500 words max. If you submit a longer piece, we will have to edit for length.• Poetry is also welcome but needs to be significantly shorter than 400 words to accommodate layout.• Please include a suggested title.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• The calendar is 11" tall by 8.5" wide, so art with a "portrait" orientation is preferred. Art need not fit those dimensions exactly.• We are interested in a diversity of media.• The calendar is printed in colour, and we prefer colour images.

ABOUT CERTAIN DAYS

The Certain Days: Freedom for Political Prisoners Calendar is a joint fundraising and educational project between outside organizers across North America and current and former political prisoners, including currently imprisoned Xinachtli (s/n Alvaro Luna Hernandez) in Texas. We were happy to welcome founding members Herman Bell and Robert Seth Hayes (Rest in Power) home from prison in 2018, and David Gilbert in 2021, each of whom spent over 40 years behind bars. All of the current members of the outside collective are grounded in day-to-day organizing work other than the calendar, on issues ranging from legal aid to community media, radical education to prisoner solidarity. We work from an anti-imperialist, anti-racist, anti-capitalist, feminist, queer- and trans-liberationist position. All proceeds from the calendar go to abolitionist organizations working for a better world.
